

BIG SHOOT SET FOR THE FIFTH

As an added attraction for the Fourth of July celebration, the committee in charge has arranged with the Tonopah Gun club to hold a blue-rock shoot at its grounds near the Ball park, on July 5th, at 2 o'clock p. m. There will be five 20-bird events, with $50 added money. The money will be divided in accordance with the Rose system—the ratio of 5-3-2. Such a division will not only enable the best shots to get in the money, but also those who are fair shots.

There is no cleaner sport in the world than blue-rock shooting, where it takes a clear, keen eye and a steady nerve, and perfect co-ordination. The sharp competition and goodfellowship that exists on the firing-line is largely responsible for the fact that the sport over the trap shows a greater increase each year than any other in the United States. It is by far the most fascinating sport and is followed by both men and women.

A special invitation is extended to Manhattan, Goldfield and other neighboring towns. Visitors will have a good view from their autos. The shoot will be open to all, and promises to be one of the main attractions of the day.

TONOPAH WILL SEND OUT AN AMBULANCE

The Women's Auxiliary met yesterday afternoon in the Airdome and reported having collected for the Red Cross during the past week $2515.35. This included both cash and pledges.

R. J. Highland thanked the women for their earnest and successful work.

Mrs. E. S. Grigby, chairman, in a short address, recalled the swiftness with which the organization had grown to 200 from the ladies' small Liberty Loan committee, which numbered only ten active workers. Now, all that was needed for serious, effective work was some concrete object toward which their energies might be directed. To this end she proposed that the Tonopah Ambulance Regiment be formed, its object being to equip and maintain an ambulance at the front. The plan also includes a regiment of boys and a regiment of girls, with barracks, regimental divisions, drill, colors, and even a mascot.

After being explained in detail, the plan was unanimously adopted. The Tonopah Ambulance Regiment then offered its services as a body and as individuals, to the Red Cross for carrying on any work the Red Cross may desire to do.

CURB QUOTATIONS

From private wires received by H. E. Epstine:

A review of market conditions in the east this morning shows gathering confidence in the Manhattans. At the opening in Philadelphia 32 was bid for Man. Con. and 20 minutes later New York bid 33. At 11:35 Philadelphia bid 33 for Man. Con., $1.35 for White Caps and 20 1/2 for Rescue-Bula. At 12:21 the Quaker City reported sales of Man. Con. at 35 1/2. White Caps Extension was bid 24 in New York at 1:17 and at the close Philadelphia reported sales at 37 and White Caps Ex. 24 to 26.

New York closed on other stocks as follows: Booth, 8 a.; Silver Pick, 11 1/2 asked; Cash Boy, 7 1/2 to 8; Jumbo Ex., 31 bid; Jim Butler, 81 bid, and Mizpah Ex., 10 bid.

BREAD SAVING BUREAUS ESTABLISHED IN SWEDEN

(Correspondence Associated Press.) STOCKHOLM, June 7.—"Voluntary bread saving bureaus" have been established in many of the Swedish cities. People who find it possible to get along with less bread than the amount allowed are asked to send the unused coupons to their bread cards to these bureaus. Supplementary bread cards to the value of the coupons received are issued to the poorer inhabitants. Coupons thus far received by the Stockholm bureau alone have made possible the issuance of additional supplementary cards for four tons of bread.

LARGEST AUDIENCE IN HISTORY WILL ATTEND THE BIG FIGHT

Two big auto loads of sports from San Francisco arrived yesterday to be present at the Malone-Salvatore fight tomorrow afternoon at the Airdome. Among the noted visitors was Louis Parenti, one of the largest promoters of the Pacific Coast. All of the visitors were down to see Frankie Malone work out at the Northern. Malone has carefully prepared himself for this big match and his manager, Jack Minnick, states he is in the best condition of his life.

Salvatore has also gone through a careful siege of preparation and states he will be returned the winner of the big battle without the shadow of a doubt.

The advance sale of tickets is the largest in the history of the boxing game in Tonopah and Chairman Grier again wishes to announce that the big arena will be so arranged that holders of general admission tickets will only go in by the rear door of the Airdome. The reserved ticket holders will enter the arena from the present front entrance, while the holders of ringside seats will enter from the middle entrance on Brougher avenue.

Both fighters will weigh in at the

BELLEHELEN SENDS OUT BIG SHIPMENT

The well known Cornforth & Sweet Company, operating at Bellehelen, this week made its fourth shipment to the West End mill since entering the producing class. This last lot weighed 45 tons, which carries excellent values to render its profitable after the long haul from the mine. This property is owned in Denver and was examined a short time ago by Sam Newhouse, the Salt Lake mining magnate, with the idea of taking an option. The company has been engaged in extensive development during the past eight years and has now reached a stage where the stockholders will begin to look on the bright side of life.

W. A. Murphy also shipped in a bunch of eleven tons of ore from the mine at Clifford, where he holds a lease.

HARD WORK WINS.

It is the Staff of Life on the Hard Road to Success.

Sir Frederick Treves, a noted British surgeon, said recently that hard work counts for more than brilliancy. If he had to submit to a major operation, he added, he would choose a careful, hard worker rather than a brilliant surgeon. These remarks have excited some controversy. But, after all, do they contain any real disparagement of brilliancy? Brilliancy, like genius, is an accident. It is born, not made. The world would be a dull, flat plane intellectually if it did not throw up brilliant people. Hard work never has given us Shakespeare, Beethoven, Keats, Helme, Poe, Shelley.

But hard work is the staff of life. On it we can count, on it we can rely. Hard work collects data, assimilates them, verifies brilliant hypotheses, connects and completes truths received in "flashes."

When the brilliant man is also a hard worker he conquers the world. But the slow conquests of hard work by men of talent and ability are by no means negligible. We can train children to appreciate work and method, efficiency, order and industry. When they happen to be brilliant into the bargain the reward of hard work will be correspondingly greater.

Woe to them who expect brilliancy alone to give them the success that is worthy and enduring.—Chicago Herald.

VANITY AND SPECTACLES.

The Old Plea That Wearing Glasses Makes One Look Aged.

One of the popular objections to wearing glasses is that wearing glasses makes one look old.

This was true in the days when they were worn only to help poor sight and chiefly by the elderly. Now a very large percentage of wearers of spectacles are children, and the wearing of spectacles is no longer a mark of advanced age. It is not a sufficient excuse for a lady to say that glasses would make her look old.

Moreover, wearing glasses is one of the best preservers of a youthful appearance. This is because prolonged eye strain causes wrinkles to appear prematurely and gives the countenance a strained, anxious, tired, drawn, cross look, which is very characteristic and is far more to be avoided from the point of view of appearance than the slight disfigurement of glasses.

Indeed, so far from being unbecoming, there are some types of face to which glasses just add the finishing touch.—Charles Phelps Cushing in World's Work.

Ten rounds, Marquis of Queensberry rules to govern, with Honest Mike Geary of Goldfield as official referee and King Pierce official timekeeper. Walter Drabnick of Goldfield will be the announcer.

The preliminaries, which consist of one four-round and one six-round event, are as follows: Chalky Miller of Tonopah vs. Glen Swartout of Tonopah, four rounds, for a $75 purse at catch weights.

Arthur Dupont of Goldfield vs. Buck O'Brien of Reno, six rounds, for $125 purse, 60 per cent to the winner and 40 per cent to the loser.

The first preliminary will be staged at 4:30 p. m. and the main event is expected to commence about 4:30 p. m.

The net profits from the fight will all go to the benefit of the Nye County Chapter of the National Red Cross Society.

BUTLER DECLARES FIFTH DIVIDEND

Dividend No. 5 of the Jim Butler Tonopah Mining Company has been declared. This calls for the disbursement of $171,802 on the 21st of August. Four other dividends of equal amount have been paid by this company, making a total of 50 per cent returned to the stockholders or an aggregate of $859,010 on the capitalization of 1,718,021 shares outstanding.

The Butler is maintaining its normal production of approximately 900 tons weekly, an amount that can be increased when the management prefers to do so. The unimproved territory is being prospected steadily with a diamond drill and, although nothing is said about the returns or the showing of the cores, it is currently understood that the underlying formation portends a long career for the company. The mine is being operated under the direction of W. J. Pike, pending the arrival of Clyde B. Jackson, who has been detained in California.

LARRY GLASS KEPT BUSY

The county clerk thought he would have a run today on marriage licenses and was sorely peeved when he found that none called at his office but lovers of the gentle art of angling. Therefore the benighted Larry Glass concluded that all was fish that came to his net anyway, and forthwith issued licenses to the following: Pete Wilson, George Wilkings, W. A. Lynch, A. C. Spiers, L. C. Dorn, Homer J. O'Connell and W. J. Moran.

GERMAN METHODS

turnover, no matter whether there was any profit or not.

"As an instance of this on the export side, one firm had built up a turnover of $4,000,000 a year in silk, but only covered the cost of running the department. All engaged in cut-throat competition, not merely against British rivals, but against one another, and even in the handling of their own German and Austrian manufactures. In the main, however, the goods they sold to the Chinese—giving dangerously long credits—consisted of Manchester and Bradford goods, for, though the plums of that trade in Hong Kong were retained by British firms, the Germans had captured a substantial portion of it by taking business—as their books showed—on miserably inadequate terms, sometimes even at a loss. This had temporarily benefited Manchester and Bradford merchants, but many of the enemy firms were getting deeper and deeper into a state of such chronic overtrading that very little would have been needed to upset the whole fabric and bring about a crash which would have seriously injured British mercantile and banking interests.

"It is not at all surprising to learn that German firms at Hong Kong added dishonesty to their recklessness in trading. The winding-up inquiries disclosed the fact that the bulk of their business was actually done on capital borrowed on what were virtually false pretenses from London finance houses. Nor is it surprising to learn that merchants who treated their own 'letters of lien' as so many scraps of paper deliberately violated the conditions under which they were allowed to continue business in Hong Kong for two or three months after the outbreak of war."

The periodical says that Mr. Moss certainly shows that the methods of German traders "are for the most part methods to be avoided," and adds in conclusion:

"And Hong Kong is not the first place from which we have had proofs that German commerce, about the growth of which we used to hear so much, rested on a very unstable foundation."

CARNIVAL AND PICTURES AT THE BUTLER

It is quite a jump from Booth Tarkington's "Seventeen," but Louise Huff and Jack Pickford take you back a hundred years to old-fashioned London, in the pictureization of Charles Dickens' well known novel "Great Expectation." The story is woven around two most interesting characters—an escaped convict and an old spinster who, deserted at the altar, trains her beautiful daughter Estelle (Louise Huff) to break the hearts of all men with whom she comes in contact. How Estelle at last meets an orphan boy—Pip (Jack Pickford), their love, separation and final reunion over the dying ex-convict who has befriended Pip, is the story told in this Paramount production of Charles Dickens' great novel which will be shown at the Butler today, and in addition to the picture program this evening, in keeping with the holiday celebration, a full carnival show will be presented, comprising singing and dancing novelties, hula hula girls, Cannibal King of Zoo Zoo, etc. Tomorrow, the Fourth, the vaudeville program will be continued both afternoon and evening, in conjunction with a short comedy picture program—nothing long or tiring; it is just a drop-in program; come and go as you please, and it will be shown at the regular admission.
